Haviland,Haviland,

As requested, I am forwarding some of the gift box image as it was presented at FoodEx in early March.

In addition to those ensemble in a box, we do sell bottle by bottle (8 oz mono-floral honey, kukui, lehua at around $15 /btl) that can be put into a abaca bag.

Ensemble:

1. Kukui & Lehua bottles (at the bottom of the photo):

Assortment of two different honey bottled in 8 oz bottles in a box. Has sold under direct retail at $32 / box. This box is German, Alles, and cost around $2.50 in Yokohama. It has double shell for cushion and a window to show the two bottles. It looks high-end with a golden stripe.

2. Christmas Berry and C Berry Honey (in the middle of the photo)

Assortment of berry itself (50g or 2 oz) and 7 oz honey. Berry is yet to go through the quarantine.

3. Kauai Herb Tea (28g or 1 oz) and Kukui Honey (8 oz) this may hit $55 / box. Tea yet to go through the quarantine.

Please let me know if you need more info.

Best,
Osamu
